

Stakeholder Conference

INVITATION

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the SECONOMICS Stakeholder Conference which will be held in Anadolu University, Eskisehir/TURKEY, on February 27-28 th, 2014.

SECONOMICS, a project partially funded under the Seventh Framework Programme by the European Commission, is bringing together a team of security practitioners, economists, sociologists and engineers to produce a generalized policy “toolkit” that will assist decision makers in identifying and reacting to public transportation and critical infrastructures threats. The project, which will finish in 2015, is being carried out by an international consortium operating with 11 partners from 7 different countries.

The Anadolu University and the Seconomics Consortium invite selected civil aviation stakeholders from different fields (European and National Authorities, Industries, Institutions and Research) in the validation and consolidation process of Seconomics results by participating in interactive sessions during the Workshop.

For further information about the project, please visit SECONOMICS web page:
<http://www.seconomicsproject.eu>

We look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

The SECONOMICS Consortium

Venue

Salon 2009 Gençlik Merkezi, Anadolu University Yunus Emre Campus, 26470, Eskisehir, TURKEY.
